WARE MALCOMB TORONTO OFFICE EXPANDS TO NEW LOCATION

TORONTO (August 31, 2015) – Ware Malcomb, an award-winning international design firm, today announced that its Toronto office has expanded to a new, larger location at 180 Bass Pro Mills Drive, Suite 103 in Vaughan, Ontario to accommodate the firm’s growing client and employee base. Specializing in architectural and interior architectural design for commercial real estate and corporate clients, the firm’s Toronto office opened in 2007 and has since completed hundreds of projects in the greater Toronto area. The firm hosted a ribbon cutting ceremony at the new office attended by Maurizio Bevilacqua, Mayor of the City of Vaughan, and Lawrence R. Armstrong, Chief Executive Officer of Ware Malcomb.

“This new office location gives us the bandwidth to continue to expand and meet the needs of our clients now and in the future,” said Frank Di Roma, Regional Director of Ware Malcomb’s Toronto office. “We look forward to many exciting and productive years ahead in this dynamic market.”

Recent high profile projects designed by Ware Malcomb in the greater Toronto area include: the new, award-winning, 94,063 square meter (1,012,500 square foot) adidas Group Canada distribution centre located in the County of Brant, Ontario; a 46,451 square meter (500,000 square foot) building for Acklands Grainger in Caledon, Ontario; and a 9,290 square meter (100,000 square foot) building for developer HOOPP Realty located in Ottawa, Ontario.

Ware Malcomb’s new Toronto office reflects the firm’s new corporate design standards, and features branded graphics developed by their award-winning in-house wm | branding studio throughout the space.
