WARE MALCOMB ANNOUNCES COMPLETION OF R-COMPUTER OFFICE IN CONCORD

Pleasanton, Calif. (January 28, 2015) – Ware Malcomb, an award-winning international design firm, today announced construction is complete on the renovated interior of R-Computer’s office located at 3953 Industrial Way in Concord, Calif. Ware Malcomb provided interior design services for the project. R-Computer is a technology company offering innovative computer solutions for small- to medium-sized companies, up to Fortune 500s. The general contractor was Vallee Construction.

The 4,500 square foot tenant improvement project emphasized open spaces and the creation of a San Francisco loft atmosphere. A large open concept café area -- with internet bar, built-in coffee machine and custom cabinetry -- is the focal point of the entry space and provides a popular gathering space for employees. Exposed brick, brick veneer and reclaimed distressed wood were used throughout the space for a rustic loft feel. The stair treads were made from the old Cal Berkeley stadium benches.

“The business owners treat their employees like family and the new interior office design reflects that vibe, along with their own personal tastes,” said Gary Drew, Principal of Ware Malcomb’s Pleasanton office. “We created an open concept with natural gathering places for R-Computer employees to collaborate and recharge.”
