WARE MALCOMB ANNOUNCES PROMOTION OF FRANK DI ROMA TO PRINCIPAL

TORONTO (February 28, 2017) – Ware Malcomb, an award-winning international design firm, today announced Frank Di Roma has been promoted to Principal of the firm’s Toronto office. In this position, Di Roma leads Ware Malcomb’s growth and expansion in Canada. He is responsible for business development, client relationships, and overseeing all projects in the Canadian market.

“Frank has built a consistently growing market share across the Toronto region, in addition to winning great projects across Canada in several provinces,” said Lawrence R. Armstrong, Chief Executive Officer of Ware Malcomb. “His dynamic personality and passion for design, client service and business development are inspiring to all who know him and work with him. All of us congratulate him on this well-deserved promotion.”

Di Roma joined Ware Malcomb in 2005 and relocated from California to Toronto in 2007. He stepped up to lead the Toronto office as Regional Manager in 2010, and was promoted to Regional Director in 2013. During that time, Di Roma has been the driving force of Ware Malcomb’s growth in region. Under his leadership, Ware Malcomb’s Toronto office has designed a wide array of architecture and interior design projects in the areas of corporate and commercial office, industrial, retail, renovation, mixed-use, multi-family residential and auto dealerships.

A licensed architect in Alberta, British Columbia, and Ontario, Di Roma received his Bachelor of Architecture degree from the University of Ryerson in Toronto, as well as his Masters of Architecture degree from the University of Buffalo in New York. He is an active member of the National Association of Industrial & Office Properties (NAIOP) and the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR).
