WARE MALCOMB ANNOUNCES KELLY TEENOR HAS JOINED THE FIRM AS DIRECTOR, MARKETING

IRVINE, Calif. (July 21, 2017) – Ware Malcomb, an award-winning international design firm, today announced that Kelly Teenor has joined the firm as Director, Marketing. In this role, Teenor manages Ware Malcomb’s corporate marketing team, which supports all of the firm’s 22 offices throughout North America.

“Kelly’s deep marketing experience across a variety of industries is a great asset to Ware Malcomb, especially during this period of tremendous growth,” said Ruth Brajevich, Vice President, Strategic Initiatives. “We are excited to welcome Kelly to the marketing team, and I look forward to our collaboration in the continued evolution of Ware Malcomb’s marketing strategies,” said Maureen Bissonnette, Associate Principal, Marketing.

Teenor brings more than 15 years of AEC industry marketing and communications experience to Ware Malcomb. Throughout her career, she has held senior marketing roles at national and local engineering firms, as well as both marketing and communications positions at manufacturing and distribution companies.

Teenor received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration and a Master of Arts degree in Communications from California State University at Fullerton. She is Accredited in Public Relations (APR) by the Public Relations Society of America, holds a Certificate in Light Construction & Development Management from the University of California, Irvine Extension program, and belongs to the Society for Marketing Professional Services.
