WARE MALCOMB ANNOUNCES JIMENA FERNANDEZ NAVARRA HAS JOINED FIRM AS DIRECTOR, INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE & DESIGN IN MEXICO CITY

MEXICO CITY (May 17, 2021) – Ware Malcomb, an award-winning international design firm, today announced that Jimena Fernandez Navarra has joined the firm as Director, Interior Architecture & Design for the Mexico City office. In this role, Fernandez is responsible for the growth and management of the Interior Architecture & Design Studio and oversees all interiors projects for the Mexico City office.

Fernandez brings over 18 years of interior architecture and design expertise to the Ware Malcomb team. She has designed more than 2,000,000 square meters of projects, and has extensive experience in the office, hospitality, retail and residential sectors. Fernandez is well known as a thought leader in the design industry and has led many award-winning projects throughout her career.

“We are excited to welcome Jimena to our team in Mexico City,” said Andres Galvis, Regional Director, Latin America. “Her thought leadership in the design industry will elevate our interior architecture and design offerings in this dynamic market.”

Fernandez was recently named Top Ten Best Architects in Mexico by Expansion Magazine and El Heraldo de Mexico in 2021. She is a LEED Accredited Professional and actively participates in several commercial real estate industry organizations, including membership in CREW Network. In addition to her industry involvement, she has a passion for teaching. Fernandez teaches interior architecture and design courses at two universities in Mexico, Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México and Universidad Anáhuac. She also helped create the curriculum for the interior design course at Universidad Anáhuac Puebla.

Fernandez holds a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Universidad Anáhuac and a master’s degree from Universidad Politécnica de Madrid in Advanced Technology Buildings. She is currently pursuing a second master’s degree in Interior Design from Instituto Científico Técnico y Educativo.
